

For Immediate Release

October 24, 2005

Iverson Makes Presentation at RAPS 2005

MILWAUKEE, WI, October 24, 2005 – Steve Iverson, President/CEO of Iverson Language Associates, Inc. was a featured presenter at this year’s Regulatory Affairs Professionals Society (RAPS) Annual Conference & Exposition. The conference, which took place October 16-19th in Baltimore, Maryland, hosted roughly 1600 regulatory affairs professionals from 25 different countries.

Iverson’s presentation, entitled Language and Cultural Barriers to Conducting Business in the Global Regulatory Environment, was part of the Global Briefings session, which hosted 90 attendees. Points from the presentation included rationale, process, pricing, terminology management, and quality control issues involved in managing document translation, in relation to the regulatory community.

As a member of RAPS, Iverson was honored to present at this year’s conference. “It’s always a double opportunity to be able to share ideas with those involved in the translation process, and to learn from them at the same time.”

Headquartered in Milwaukee, Iverson Language Associates, Inc. works with companies nationwide to provide strategic solutions for managing document translation. Clients include companies and organizations that have an ongoing need to communicate business-critical information in multiple languages. Detailed information on the company can be obtained by visiting www.iversonlang.com.

Contact:

Kristen Crump, Marketing Communications Manager
Iverson Language Associates, Inc.
414-271-1144, ext. 16